

As a member and Elder of Killearn Kirk for many years I feel that it is a great privilege to have been asked to serve the Church as Session Clerk.

Having lived in the area all of my life, I strongly feel that the Church should be part of our community. It is a place where everyone can come together, a place where we can support each other and a place where we can share in God's family. The Church is also a place where you can go if in need of a little solitude, it's a place of peace, a place to worship and a place of friendship.

As a Christian I believe that we should lead by example, by living out Christian values in our everyday lives, at work and at home and serving our local community. It is a way of life. It is about doing ordinary things everyday, a kind word here, a little support there, or offering assistance when required. All these aspects of our lives may not in themselves be significant but when taken collectively are practical demonstrations of living a Christian life.

Our work may be varied, our job titles different, but we can all share in the ministry in some form or another. This can be done quietly and without fuss. We do what we can to help and assist.
