Local Church Changes

Stuart is still serving as interim moderator for Buchlyvie and Gartmore. The linked congregation were united earlier in the year and will be looking to find a new minister. The Presbytery Plan is only allocating a 0.5 ministry for the charge. There is still a lot of work to be done to help them move on and your prayers are appreciated for everyone involved.

Share the gifts God has given to you

Ever thought you could take a turn welcoming people at the door, helping with the after-service refreshments, doing a reading, leading a prayer, or any other gift of service you have been given?

We are looking for people to help with AV system, readings, prayers, welcome and door duties, teas and coffees. No experience is needed, and support and guidance will be given as.

Don't bury your gifts, let them out to play and we will all be enriched by them.

Safeguarding

Did you know that Killearn Kirk is a Safeguarding Church with its own Safeguarding Co-ordinator.

What does that mean?

One of the things that it means is that everyone within the Church who works with children or vulnerable adults goes through a full recruitment process and needs to be cleared by Disclosure Scotland before they can take up their paid or voluntary post within the church.

A lot more is undertaken by a Safeguarding Church – just ask and find out!

Flower Ministry

Each week members and friends of the congregation provide flowers for the sanctuary. These flowers are then delivered to people in the community. If you know of anyone who would benefit from a gift of flowers, then please let us know.

Email: sessionclerk@killearnkirk.org.uk

Church Conversations

It is hoped, if there is a demand, to hold a short series of 'conversations' about what the church is for and what it means to be a part of it. This may be useful for those who are coming from different church traditions and those wondering what it means to become a member of the congregation.

Quarterly Communion Services

Killearn Kirk and Strathblane Parish Church quarterly services of Holy Communion will be held on Sunday, 1st June at 10am (11.30 - Strathblane); Sunday, 7th September and Sunday 7th December.

On-line Worship

If you ever miss a service, remember that we record our service, and you can watch them at any time. You can access these via the Kirk website.

Kirk Finance

The accounts for the year to 31/12/24 have now been independently examined by Bell Barr & Co. of Milngavie. We have a number of funds but the General Fund which covers the day-to-day running of the Kirk had a shortfall of £10,391 which compares with the previous year's shortfall of £18,769. Looking ahead to 2025 we are forecasting a slightly smaller shortfall of £8722. Although there is a reduction of costs as a result of the linkage with Strathblane Church, Heating & Lighting costs are forecast to increase by £6000.

Back to 2024, our overall funds movement showed a surplus of £6491 which included an anonymous donation of £20,000 and £7,000 from the Caram Trust. To summarise, our different funds at 31/12/24 are made up as follows;

Unrestricted Funds £134,575

Restricted Funds £150,032

Funds held by CofS Edinburgh on our behalf £192,946

Total: £477,553

Previous Year
£460,423

Thank you to my colleagues in the Finance Committee for their help during 2024 – Teresa Prescott (Assistant Treasurer). Scott Macintosh and Helen Gee who look after Gift Aid. We are grateful to everyone who has supported the Kirk in 2024 - "It is better to give than to receive".

Salvation Army Christmas Gifts

The Citadel of Stirling branch of the Salvation Army extend their thanks and appreciation to Killearn Kirk and Killearn Primary School on the donation of gifts for children and young people for Christmas. These gifts were given to children and young people in the Stirling Council area. Each year more and more families need this assistance to share a little love and giving with families. A big THANK YOU to everyone who donated.

Blythswood Shoeboxes

Another huge thank you to everyone who donated a shoebox this Christmas.

Blythswood have reported that over 85,000 shoeboxes were sent to people in need across eight Eastern European Countries.

Call to prayer

There is a prayer team in Killearn Kirk that meets most weeks, usually on a Wednesday morning. We are happy to pray for anyone in the village and beyond and for any situation. You can drop a note in the prayer box which is located within the entrance to the church. You can provide as much or as little information as you wish. It can be placed in a sealed envelope if you wish and you can even ask someone to put it in the box for you if you are not a regular attendee at Church. We love to have updates on any prayer requests that you make so keep us posted.

Session Report

As we work more closely with Strathblane Parish Church, the Kirk Sessions of both churches enjoyed an evening together at the beginning of December. A short joint Session meeting was held to complete pertinent business and then we had an opportunity to get to know each other over tea and coffee and to discuss possible joint future projects. Andy Martin will be leading us in worship on Sunday, 27th April. Andy is the Church Ministry Facilitator (Scotland) for Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF). We look forward to his visit and hearing about MAF. (More on pg 13)

In April, we hope to have our audio/visual and streaming equipment installed. This will allow us to stream the service live and make less work for those involved in the production of the audiovisual. It is the time of year when we present all our paperwork to the Presbytery of Perth, and all is in hand and ready for when a date is set.

Julian Pombo, 3rd year ministry student, will be leaving us on Easter Sunday after his six months attachment. We wish Julian God's blessing as he continues his studies and prepares for ministry. We have very much appreciated his time with us in Killearn and have had the privilege of watching him grow in experience with Stuart's guidance over the past six months. We will miss your sermons and your musical abilities.

And finally, I would like to wish everyone in the community a Happy Easter.

Killearn Kirk Choir

'Love has come again like wheat that springeth green.' is the refrain of the well known and much loved Easter hymn 'Now the Green Blade Riseth' which speaks of hope in the midst of despair. "Wheat Field with Rising Sun" was painted in May 1889 by Van Gogh and used the rising sun above fields of wheat to represent life giving rising energy.

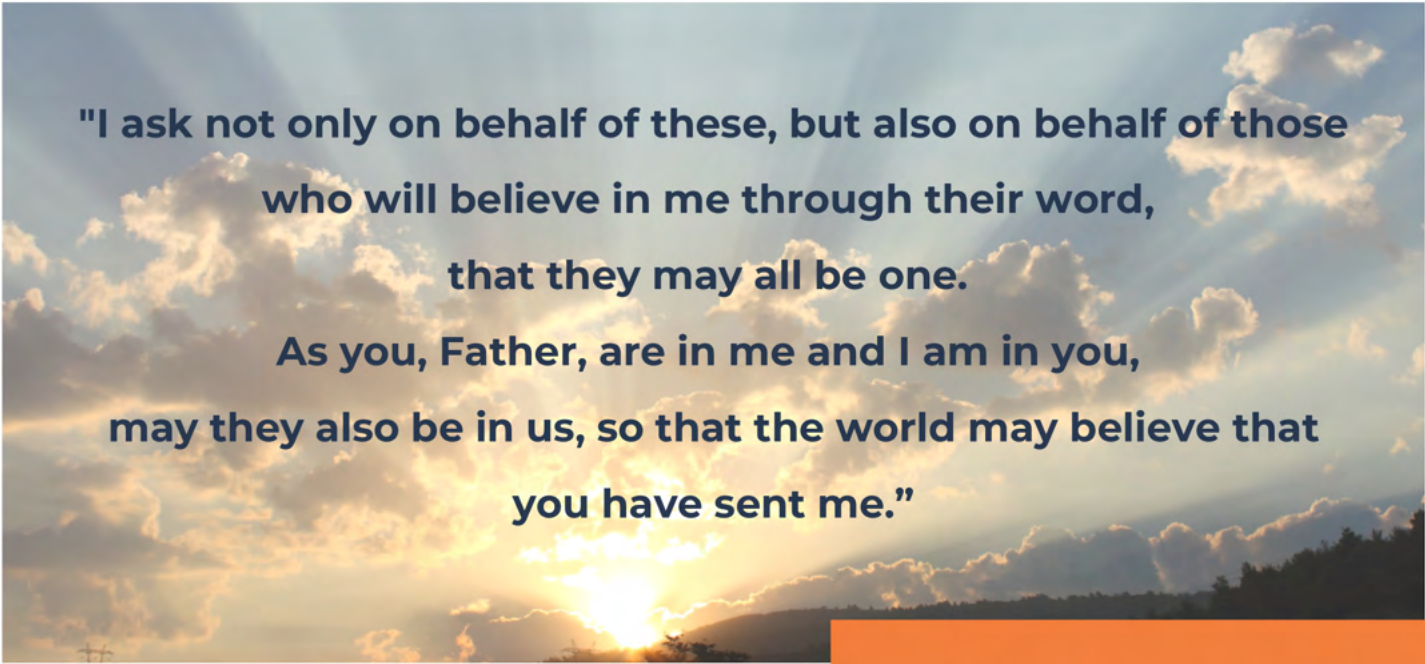

The connection of the Easter event - the rising of Jesus - is unmistakable. The simple phrase "Now the green blade riseth" reminds us that Jesus is risen today, just as he rose on that first Easter morning. In the third line, we find "Love" being used as a metaphor for Jesus. We are now reminded why Jesus came to the earth in the first place: "For God so loved the world..."(John 3:16). After speaking directly about Jesus' death and resurrection, we turn to our lifetime struggles. In the fourth stanza, it is emphasised that no matter what we are going through, "Jesus' touch can call us back to life again." From this suffering, from the cross, springs forth new life. It is trusting that God's plans for us are what will bring us deep joy even in the midst of struggle. We will find new life.

"Forth he came at Easter, like the risen grain, He that for three days in the grave had lain, quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green"

A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE...

"I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one.
As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

John 17 : 20 - 21

What does unity mean?

It seems to depend on who you ask.

Recently we sang a song in Strathblane, 'Jesus bids us shine', you may know it. The bit that struck me most was the phrase – you in your small corner and I in mine. It brought to mind a child sitting in a corner, nursing a candle, alone. We talk about being united in Christ and being one, yet too often that is a concept and not the lived reality. Through recent years we have witnessed an unprecedented change in the national church. The attempt to re-size the church to match the number of ministers that can be afforded. As part of the Presbytery Planning Committee and having to negotiate changes, the best way I can sum it up is the attitude of – change is fine, as long as everything stays the same. Unfortunately, that's not the way it can be. Change means just that, change.

Yet, in so many ways we are creatures of change, we change every day, getting older, for some of us greyer etc. The new technology that we use every day we have absorbed and adapted to, mobile phones, streaming services, online shopping it is a hugely different world from 20 years ago, let alone 30 or 40 or 50.

In the face of all this change it can be a comfort to have somethings the way they have always been, the problem is that your point of reference to that is very different from everyone else's. It can be shaped by your experiences, what was important to you at a certain time. Even someone of the same age will have different views of what should stay the same.

Where do we go from here?

If we want to see the church locally and nationally turned around, we have to get out of the corner and take our light into the middle of the room and join it with the lights of others and shine more brightly. It will demand of each of us the ability to let some things go, to try something new (and if we don't like it, try something else). The churches' role is not to act as some sort of local history society, but rather to be the agents of God's change and transformation in the world. You never know in all the new things to be tried you may discover you like them better than what we cling to as being so precious.

MUSIC REVIEW

SOULFUL SOUNDS

Ashley Edwards

Amen: Natalie Layne

"All Joy" by Natalie Layne is a modern take on worship music. The fusion of gospel and pop feels fresh and contemporary, with the album striking a good balance between energetic tracks and slower songs that encourage reflection on God's word. The All Joy album originated as the Amen album, featuring six diverse songs. As its popularity grew, Layne released a cover version with vocals and piano accompaniment, titled Amen (At the Piano). This album is well worth a listen, as it captures the essence of the original while maintaining a soulful feel. I will highlight a couple of tracks in this review; however, I strongly recommend listening to the entire album to fully experience the journey the artist intends to take you on. "Amen" is the album's opening track and begins with a grand choral introduction, building anticipation for the anthem that the song evolves into during the chorus. The arrangement then transitions to piano with hand-claps, perfectly capturing a gospel atmosphere. The song gradually builds in intensity, culminating in a powerful choir singing "Amen." Layne describes the inspiration for this track as stemming from a small act of kindness someone showed her. She explained, "It lifted my spirits and reminded me that there are still good things happening, little things, everywhere around us." From this, she penned the uplifting lyrics,

"Amen for the smile of a stranger. Amen when the good guys win." The song serves as a reminder that, although life can be challenging and overwhelming, it's important to maintain a continuous dialogue with the Lord and acknowledge everything He does for us.

Following similar themes to "Amen", "Grateful For" stands out as the highlight of the album. Its catchy melody lingers in your mind throughout the day. The song reminds us to adopt what Steve Harvey calls an attitude of gratitude." The central theme focuses on recognising blessings in life, especially when "it doesn't look the way I think it should." It strikes the perfect balance between comfort and uplifting energy, with a strong gospel vibe. Layne also re-recorded this track for her Amen (At the Piano) album, preserving its energy while showcasing the beautiful tone of her voice. Personally, this song resonates with me the most, as it serves as a reminder that every day is a blessing from God. Even during periods of busyness or difficulty, I can lean on Christ and trust that His love will sustain me. For me this song brings to mind the passage in Romans 8:31: "If God is for us, who can be against us?" and that makes me so grateful. So, this Easter, what are you grateful for?

The Easter Story

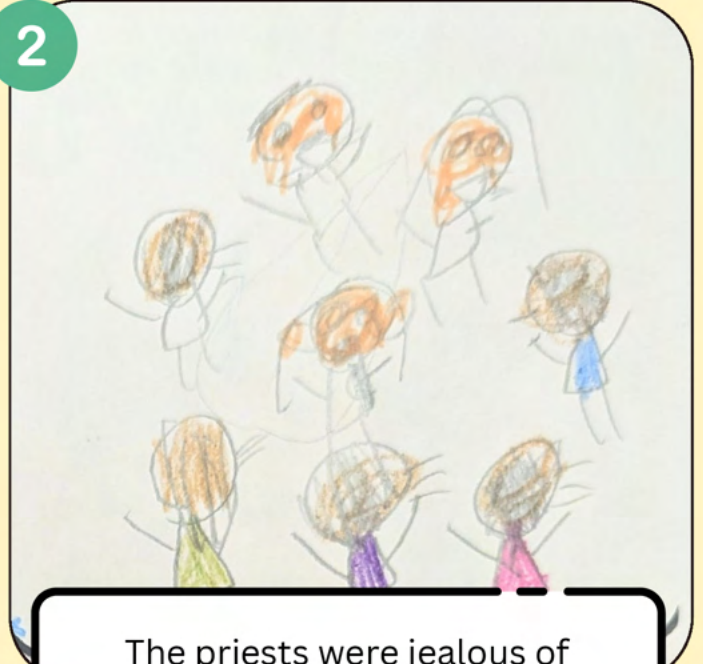

As told through pictures drawn by pupils at Killearn Primary School.

1

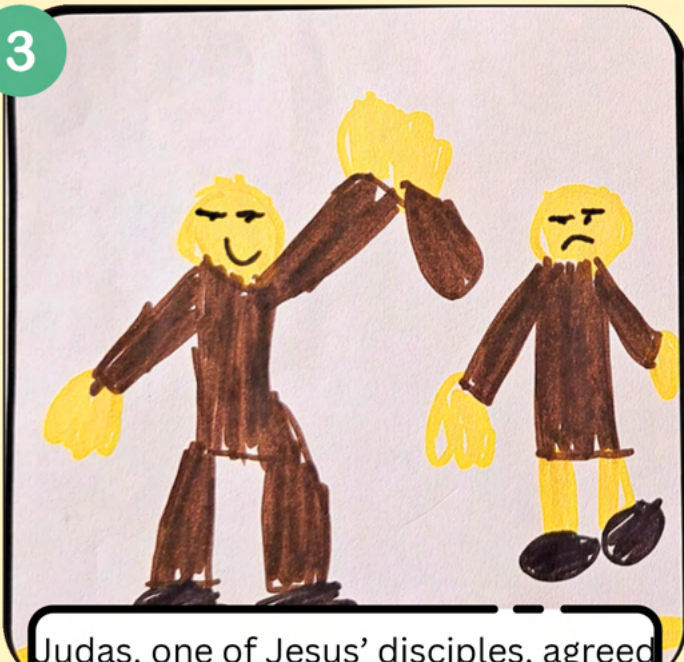

Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on a Donkey. Crowds waved palm branches and shouted 'Hosanna'.

2

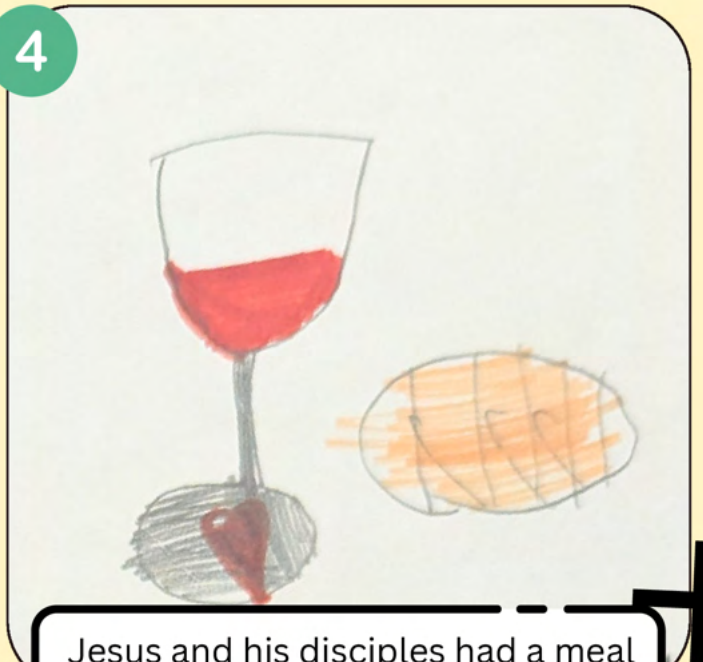

The priests were jealous of Jesus' popularity.

3

Judas, one of Jesus' disciples, agreed to betray him. The chief priests gave him 30 silver coins.

4

Jesus and his disciples had a meal together, this was called the last supper.

A huge thank you to

The chocolate Easter eggs that we enjoy represent the stone rolling away from Jesus' tomb.
They are also a symbol of new life and the resurrection of Jesus.

5

Jesus was nailed upon a cross. Later that day, the sky turned black, and Jesus died.

6

Jesus' body was laid in a tomb and a stone was rolled across the entrance.

7

On the third day some visitors saw that the stone had been rolled away
and the tomb was empty.

8

Jesus had risen from the dead
and his followers rejoiced!

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

Scripture Union at Balfron High

Since March last year Balfron High School has welcomed an SU group into the school. We meet on a Tuesday lunchtime in Mrs Irvin's room within the Technologies Department.

We enjoy games, videos discussion as well as home baking from a lovely lady in the village. We would also be delighted if anyone from the church community would like to come along and share their experiences too. Prayer is always appreciated, we are a small group and would love to see it grow.

Golden years head to Callander

Following a successful annual outing to Callander last summer, we held our annual Family Bingo evening in late Autumn. In terms of fundraising this proved to be our most successful evening yet and very much enjoyed by everyone. The many prizes were donated by those who came - very much appreciated.

Our next event is our Annual Dinner provided by the Kitchen Window at the Village Hall in early April at which we will ask our participants for ideas on where we should go in the summer. Coach costs have become a major cost and we have applied to the Stirling Council Community Pride Fund for grant assistance. We have had funding in the past from this fund but not recently and we hope for a positive outcome which will allow us to continue with our annual events.

Strathendrick Youth Worker

Strathendrick Baptist Church have just appointed a new full time Christian Youth Worker, a young woman called Susan. Her commissioning service will take place in a few weeks' time. Here are a few words from her....

Hello. I'm Susan the Youth and Outreach Worker at Strathendrick Baptist Church. I have just moved to Drymen from Edinburgh where I was a Youth and Community worker for a church. I have been in various forms of youth work for the last 11yrs and am excited to continue this, partnering with Strathendrick Baptist. I will be working with the young people in the church and reaching out to our local community, including working in Balfron High School. I'm looking forward to serving the high school and building relationships with the young people. I would appreciate prayer as I begin this new role and learn more about the local community. Also, prayer for the building of new relationships with the school and local teens. Thank you.

Book Group

In January, we finished reading the seasonal title Hark! The Biography of Christmas by Paul Karsa described by Miranda Hart as 'The Perfect Stocking Filler'.

Our new book for the Spring is Lydia: A Story by the popular biblical scholar, Paula Gooder. She brings to life the story of Lydia, the seller of purple cloth quoted by St. Paul in his letter to the Philippians. The book is very suitable and readable for Lent and brings to life the challenges and conditions of the early Church.

It's a good read and strongly supported by Paula Gooder's deep research and lively writing style. One reviewer wrote: 'This book positively crackles with hope, faith and love'. Our small and very friendly Group meets on alternate Mondays in the Session House at 10.00 a.m. Come and join us! We promise a warm welcome – with the possibility of cake.

Thursday Club

The Killearn Thursday club continues weekly in the church hall for senior members of the village. It consists of games, Whist, Dominoes or Scrabble followed by afternoon tea and a chat.

Our recent trips to the Fintry Pantomime and Christmas Lunch in Fintry Sports centre were funded by a kind donation from Killearn Community Futures company. KCFC. We are now organising our spring outing - members have yet to choose the venue. Transport is provided by volunteers when required.

Anyone willing to assist as hostess or drive for about 2 hours per month please contact Pat, Alison or Maureen.

Jumble Sale

The annual Jumble Sale on Saturday, 22nd February, in aid of the Killearn Malawi Group was a great success. There was a great turn-out of helpers on the Friday night when donations were arriving, and on the Saturday. Many of the helpers have been coming for years and are old friends. Everybody was full of anticipation as the opening time at 10am arrived. A queue developed in advance of the opening, hoping to bag the early bargains. Although it was felt that there were not as many people there as in the past, the sales mounted up, and over £1900 was raised for the work of KMG. There was as usual a mound of goods left over, but a chance encounter led to Cancer Research UK in Paisley sending a van to collect everything. There are so many people to thank, the helpers, the donors of goods, and all who came to buy. But special thanks are due to Shona Kelday who organised the event. Shona has organised many fundraising events for KMG over the years, and we are very grateful for all the effort she puts into raising the funds which allow us to achieve our plans in Malawi. Our main project we are collecting for is the Girls' Hostel at Nkhonde Secondary School. Donations to this project are always welcome, through our Treasurer, Sue Beck, or online at www.givey.com/killearnmalawigroup

Strathendrick Singers Christmas Concert

Christmas really started on Sunday, 15th December at 7pm when the talented Strathendrick Singers entertained us with their annual Christmas Concert. As is now a well established custom they performed in Killearn Kirk. The Kirk is decorated tastefully a few days in advance by members of the Kirk and members of the choir. As the audience gathered the buzz of happy conversation fills the air. The scene is set for a joyful evening.

The choir take their place, looking very professional in their black outfits brightened by red and gold rosettes. The concert opened with all of us singing a well known and loved carol. Then we sit back, becoming enthralled as the choir takes over. They gave us 'For Unto Us', by G.F. Handel, 'O Come, O Come Emmanuel', by Timothy Kile and Vaughan Williams 'Fantasia on Christmas Carols', this sung as a solo by Ken Allen, a "weel kent face" in Killearn. The first half also introduced us to four talented youngsters playing Mozart's 'Eine Kleine Bruchstücken', two violins, one viola and one cello.

The second half was equally wonderful, opening and closing with communal carol singing. The choir's rendition of Handel's Hallelujah Chorus was the icing on the cake. We all love that Chorus and clearly the choir loved singing it. As we slowly filed out of the Kirk, smiles on all faces, we felt at peace with the world. Christmas had begun. Thank you Strathendrick Singers for transporting us so beautifully for a couple of hours to a joyous place in the midst of our somewhat chaotic world.

GLOBAL GRACE

Prayers for Ukraine

The Church of Scotland has joined other denominations in calling for peace following the Russian invasion of Ukraine. As the conflict continues, many are looking for ways to offer support, be it through humanitarian aid or prayer and acts of worship. Please join us in praying for Ukraine and all its citizens.

A prayer from Rt Rev Dr Shaw Paterson, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Almighty God,

Your Son came to be the Saviour of the world and the Prince of peace.

Give us grace to follow in his ways and to fulfil our calling as peacemakers in his name.

May his Holy Spirit so, move in the hearts of all people

And among the nations of the world, that the barriers of fear, suspicion and hatred

Which separate us may crumble and fall, and the peoples of the world

Be united in justice and peace;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Mission Aviation Fellowship Visits Killearn Kirk

At our regular Morning Service Sunday 27th April

Which airline flies to most destinations in the world? Clue – it's not British Airways or American Airlines! MAF was set up in 1945; its founders being inspired by their Christian faith to use their technical skills to deliver help, hope and healing to the world's most isolated people. Today MAF is the world's largest humanitarian air service, flying medical supplies, doctors, and nurses to places no one else can reach and ensuring critical care gets to where it's needed most. The most valuable cargo is the hope of the Gospel, where people experience a practical application of faith.

With a fleet of around 125 aircraft and planes taking off and landing every 5 minutes or so, the impact on people's lives can hardly be quantified. MAF is a partner organisation which supports the work and ministries of 1400 others including, Tearfund, WHO, Save the Children, the UN, The Christian Blind Mission and so many others.

Prayer is the mainstay of everything that MAF does and we encourage you to pray for us regularly; you can also support us with financial gifts or as a volunteer here in Scotland. Be assured that whatever your contribution it will make a lasting difference.
